Tom Ormondroyd, Owner

"Our primary goal here is to provide you one of the most unique, enjoyable, and delicious shopping experiences anywhere.

To do this, we have created an atmosphere with the sights, sounds, smells, and tastes of an early 20th century marketplace. Here, our priority is Guest Service just like the old days and our cast members are truly committed to offering you this Old World service. From walking your bags to your car to greeting you with a smile to live in-store demonstrations and samples to educating you about our products, we are here to satisfy your full culinary and shopping needs.

We look forward to seeing you walk through our doors and greeting you as our guest."

Sincerely,
Tom Ormondroyd

"I can confidently say that you will not find the selection or quality of prepared meals anywhere that we will offer everyday. Each day, our menu will change to present over 20 different entrées that we make from scratch using our own in-store ingredients. From sophisticated gourmet meals to comfort foods to ethnic cuisines, we will always have something that meets your culinary needs. And if you would like to see something we do not offer, just come in and let me know.

My main goal is to create the highest quality, convenient, and delectable food options I can for you. If you just do not have the time to cook, come in and let me do the cooking for you. From our prepared meals to our bakery to our made to order panini and focaccias, taste and quality is everything."

Sincerely,
Gregory Girard

Gregory Girard, Executive Chef
